It is hard to believe that 10 years have passed us by since the very first Not at Comic-Con event held at TATE'S! So many things have happened in all our our lives in the past decade... but we are still together! Let us take a moment to thank all of you who support our business and keep us going with all the silly fun we put out into the world! There is really no place else like South Florida and our community. You are amazing! We hope you enjoy this special TENTH volume of the TATE'S Indy Comic Anthology. Every page is filled with the hard work of South Florida creators of all ages... this is the first year we have had so many kids create comics! Remember, these are kids who were just BABIES when this event first started. Thank you to everyone who contributed, thank you to everyone who attended the event and thank YOU for reading this! Be excellent to each other!

One day Jack the Squirrel and Sally the Snail were talking in the park.

A bird flew over and pooped on Jack!

Then Jack yelled something that Sally had never heard before!

Sally was shocked.

So Jack explained...

You only say Square Words if you are really mad or stressed.

The Legend of SCRAPPLE

The hero always resists the call at first.

HEY Y'ALL,
YOU'RE IN FOR A TREAT!

A seemingly insurmountable obstacle appears before him.

I'M BRAG
THORNTROOT
THE INFAMOUS BUTCHER OF BIRGELWOOD!

Threatening the weak and innocent.

AND I'M
HERE TO RUT
SOME FISHES!

It's in this moment that the hero must rise up to action and face this foe.

Scrapple is no such hero...

WHAT DO YOU THINK
YOU'RE DOING WITH MY CHOCOLATE...!

By Alejandra Cifuentes-Ritch

Nothing epitomizes the modern, confident optimism of mid-century America quite like the vintage motel sign.

They once dotted our landscape like pop art totems...

...Unapologetically flashy monuments to the gods of leisure and fun!

Vacationing families, road-weary travelers, and lost souls were drawn to these neon beacons...

...and their promises of comfort and luxury.

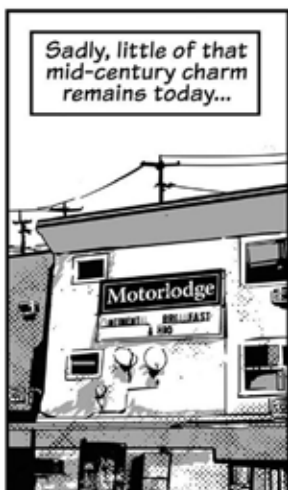

Their very shapes were attractive and compelling, as if to say...

"Here! What you seek is right here!"

"Just follow the arrows!"

"Read the signs!"

Sadly, little of that mid-century charm remains today...

But keep your eyes open, and you might be lucky enough to glimpse the rusty remains of a sign from a lost era...

...inviting you to check in and relax.
